

DIRECTIONS TO CABRA CASTLE

Cabra Castle Hotel is situated in the east of County Cavan in the northeast of Ireland. Located outside the town of Kingscourt, the castle stands on the borders of Co. Monaghan, Co. Meath and Co. Cavan.

Dublin: This journey will take less than one hour. Take the M1 to Ardee. Then from Ardee take the N2 to Carrickmacross. From Carrickmacross take the R179 towards Kingscourt. The avenue of the Hotel is located 7 miles from Carrickmacross on the left-hand side.

Belfast: Leaving Belfast take the A1 passing through Newry and on to Dundalk. In Dundalk you take the R179 which brings you to Carrickmacross. In Carrickmacross, you then take the Kingscourt road (this road has quite a lot of bends on it so caution is advised). The hotel is approximately 7 miles out this road (just before Kingscourt town). The junction for the avenue to the hotel is situated on the left hand side of the road - on a dangerous bend, so again caution is advised - there are markings for "concealed entrance" and "slow" approaching the entrance.

Galway: Leaving Galway take the N6 signposted Dublin and take the M6 signposted Dublin. Leave at junction 4 taking the 1st exit from the roundabout (N52) signposted for Mullingar. Continue on the N52 signposted Devlin. Entering Devlin continue on the N52 entering Clonmellon. At 3 roundabouts take the exits signposted Dundalk. At 4th roundabout take 1st exit signposted Kingscourt. Continue onto the R164 entering Kingscourt. At roundabout continue through for Carrickmacross. The hotel is approximately 2 miles out this road on the right hand side.

Sligo: Leaving Sligo take the N16 continuing through Glenfarne, Blacklion and Belcoo. Continue on the A4 to roundabout and take the 2nd exit for A509 signposted Cavan, Dublin. Continue on the A509 and on to the N3 through signposted Dublin. Continue to Lavey Lough and turn left onto R165 signposted Bailieborough. Entering Bailieborough continue down Main Street and turn left on the R164 signposted Kingscourt. Continue on the Bailieborough Road for Kingscourt. Upon entering Kingscourt turn right at roundabout and continue up Main Street. Turn left at round about signposted Carrickmacross. The hotel is approximately 2 miles out this road on the right-hand side.
